

2024 Journey to the Land of the Incas with Carlos Fida

August 3 – 9, 2024 Price $2,766

Morris Columbus Travel offers this amazing journey by opening a window to the world of the Incas, the most important civilization in the Americas. Colonial Lina and its museum will immerse you into a “new world”. Palaces, mansions and centuries old churches and convents are part of the tour. The imperial city of Cuzco, the center of the empire, is a historical celebration of two cultures, the Conquistador who brought the Christian faith and the Incas who worshipped the Sun. The syncretism between the two religions could be observed in artwork, architecture. The cathedral is one of the examples, where walls and altarpieces are covered in silver and gold. The Sacred Valley of the Incas is dotted with small villages and Indian markets, where life has not changed over the centuries. Machu Picchu, “The Lost Citadel of the Incas” perched on top of the Andes is the top highlight South America.
