

The Serengeti, Masai Mara, Samburu, Ol Pejeta, & Nairobi Why Kenya, East Africa, and the Great Migration?

Simply put, there is absolutely nothing like it anywhere else in Africa nor anywhere else in the world. Not in South Africa, Zimbabwe, Zaire, Tanzania, not anywhere! You can take a safari in many parts of Africa, but the game parks, adventure, facilities, game viewing, and the sheer number of animals in Kenya is unparalleled. The “Great Migration” is the largest land mammal migration in the world with literally millions of animals on the move through some of the most breathtaking ecosystems on Earth, including the Serengeti Plains and Masai Mara. It is an endless circuit of life in its purest form and a classic survival of the fittest. One million+ wildebeest, half million zebra, and dozens of other animals engage in this one-of-a-kind migration and we will be in the middle of it. Our August safaris are the peak travel dates that take us into the heart of East Africa, the Masai Mara, Serengeti, and The Great Migration.

Kenya is the most wildlife rich area in the world. No other place in Africa, or elsewhere, even comes close. There are 50 wildlife parks in Kenya. We visit the most important game parks, including the Serengeti, Masai Mara, Samburu, and Ol Pejeta.
